

REALTORS® recommend real-estate friendly candidates for election

(October 17, 2017) The Orlando Regional REALTOR® Association is pleased to recommend REALTOR® Dominic Persampiere, RE/MAX Optima, along with additional candidates running for public office. The municipal election will be held on Tuesday, November 7.

Candidates recommended by ORRA for election are

Longwood City Council, District 1 - John Maingot
Longwood City Council, District 2 - Michael Dodane
Longwood City Council, District 4 - Mark Weller
Orlando City Council, District 1 - Jim Gray
Orlando City Council, District 3 - Robert Stuart
Orlando City Council, District 5 - Regina Hill
Oviedo City Council, Mayor - REALTOR® Dominic Persampiere
Oviedo City Council, Group 1 - Steve Henken

The REALTOR® organization recommends candidates who are sensitive to issues related to real estate, homeownership, and private property rights.

ORRA considers each candidate based on his or her past voting record and/or sensitivity to real estate issues. Candidates are invited to participate in a screening process by the ORRA Candidate Screening Subcommittee, which then makes candidate recommendations to the ORRA Board of Directors for final approval.

ORRA supported candidates who accept political action committee (PAC) funds are eligible to receive contributions from the REALTORS® Political Action Committee for use in their campaign.

The Orlando Regional REALTOR® Association, recognized as one of the most innovative local real estate associations in the country, represents more than 14,000 real estate professionals throughout Central Florida.

#

Media Contact:

Frank Wolff
Uproar PR for ORRA
321-236-0102
fwolff@uproarpr.com